2016 Season Information

The leadership teams met and planned the 2016 season last Sunday at Charley's house. Here are the details.

1) The 2016 Schedule:

Notice that "The classic" is in 2017. From the many suggestions, we decided not to combine the points tournament and the classic together.

2) The rules:

Lot's of changes here.

A) We will be dropping the lowest points tournament for AOY. That means you can skip a tournament and it will not hurt you. If you fish all the tournaments, we will drop your lowest score.

B) The free entry into "The Classic" is based on division participation for up to 6 free entries.

C) The qualification for "The Classic" participation has been reduced to 3 tournaments but it's pro-rata. Meaning if you fish only 3, your entry fee is $70 vs. if you fish 5 your entry fee is $50.

D) Head-to-Head will only be played if we have 30 or more teams. There is no Head-to-Head championship.

E) Registration form and About the Club have the new division info added.

Notice that James Cook is now on the Northern Division leadership team!

F) The last points tournament of the year will have an optional $20 pot combining the North and Central divisions on Lake Waco. More details as we get closer to the date. Points and places payouts will be awarded by division and not combined.

3) Qualifying for the classic can be done in both divisions. For example, if you fish 2 tournaments in the North Division and 1 tournament in the Central Division, you will have qualify for "The Classic" since you will have met the minimum requirement of 3 tournaments for the year.

Thanks everyone for their patience and understanding. If you seen any website errors, let me know.
